

I want to strongly urge you not to diminish the power of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act. It has certainly made a difference in our home life--no more telephone solicitors during our dinner hour. With two small children, dinner is hectic enough. We value our family time and want to keep it free from intrusions by phone solicitors.

Sincerely,

Lydia Delaney-Sathy and Michael Sathy